Nancy;

The ADWR map had these two wells (attached) located incorrectly. When plotted they are both located in the town of Dragoon.

I have also attached a recent editorial in the Sierra Vista Herald, representative of the widespread support the Gunnison Project enjoys locally.

Subject: imaged records for Amerind wells

Becky,

I downloaded the imaged records. Neither well plots in the town of Dragoon on the ADWR website, BUT I decided to look it up using cadastrals. Both of these wells are in 16S, 22E, Section 19, which is in the town of Dragoon. The ADWR website obviously has an error of some kind. Maybe the UTM coordinates are wrong.
